March Event

 Keynote address by UN Goodwill Ambassador – Dia Mirza

Sustainability spokes person and a prominent Film actor.

Introducing the topic of Fashioning Resurgence.

March Event – Student Competition

The high waisted jean first came into style when the denim manufacturer Levi's produced jeans for women working on the land and in factories for the war effort in the 1940's (Vintage, 2019).'

They have been in and out of style since. Ever wonder why they are called 'Mom Jeans' then? Did your mom wear them when she was young? Maybe she still has an old pair somewhere. So out with the new and in with the old. Find something old and breathe new style into it. Think of how your grandmother's saree or father's old safari suit can become the new thing in fashion. Why not set the trend? Influence. Do not be influenced.
