

Chitkara Graduation Show 2026

Collection “Evox” by Ms. Ashana Roy draws inspiration from the traces of dinosaurs — the ultimate survivors of Earth — capturing their strength, existence, and eventual disappearance into the depths of time.

Collection “The Last Shogun” by Ms. Vaishnavi Singh is inspired by the legacy and strength of Japanese Samurai warriors, reflecting their discipline, honor, and distinctive aesthetic through contemporary garment design. The collection was further highlighted by showstopper Arshdeep Singh.

Collection “Urooz” by Ms. Unnati Malik draws inspiration from Sohra Tribal Art, which was creatively translated through screen printing techniques and blended with the aesthetics of hip-hop street culture in the garment designs.

Collection “Kintsu” by Ms. Khushi Gupta is inspired by the philosophy of repairing broken glass with gold, symbolizing resilience, beauty in imperfections, and the transformation of flaws into strength through design.

Dr. Vaibhavi P, Dean of Fashion Design Department, Chitkara Design School, with graduating students